Several horses have been stolen from citizens of Hamilton County during the past week. On Monday a valuable horse was taken from the stables of Tom Stevens, Esq., of the Milereck House; and on Thursday, Mr. Carr Wright, of Mount Pleasant, had his horse stolen from the Camp-meeting ground, on the Colerain Pike.

To Captain James L. Ruffin, of the Independent Police, we are indebted for a present of a half dozen fine, fat prairie chickens, fresh from their native wilds. Captain R., in company with a few friends has just returned from the Illinois Prairies-where they have been on a hunting excursion-and he has presented us with this substantial token of his prowess.

An individual named Smith, who lives at No. 524 Race-street, was put out of the Jager Coffee-house, corner of Vine and Mercerstreets, on Saturday night, by the proprietors. Smith was much intoxicated, and in revenge for being put out of doors thrust his arm through the window-glass, and in doing so severed an artery. He suffered to such an extent from loss of blood, that his recovery is considered doubtful.

The corner-stone of a new Catholic Church was laid on Mt. Adams, yesterday, with appropriate ceremonies, Archbishop Purcell officiating. After the ceremonies Rev. Dr. Young, of Erie, New York, delivered an appropriateaddress. Several thousand persons were in attendance, among whom were the members of St. Patrick's Benevolent Society, and St. Peter's Society, clothed in appropriate regalia. Menter's Cornet, and Brant's Union Band, discoursed sweet music for the occasion.

of Tom Stevens, Esq., proprietor of the Millcreek, we paid a visit, Saturday afternoon, to the new race course known as the Cincinnati Trotting Park, about six miles from the city, on the Carthage Turnpike. A trotting course within reasonable distance of the city, and approachable without the necessity of crossing the river, has long been a desideratum with that portion of the community who are fond of the sports of the turf, and we can now offer our congratulations, to those fond of witnessing a fine trot, on having in our county a course excelled by none in the country. The track of Cincinnati Trotting Park is a full mile; it is in shape an oval, having a quarter of a mile to each turn and a half a mile to each of the sides. The natural advantages of the ground are very

a race. The stands for spectators and the judges are only temporary structures, but will be replaced during the fall by buildings of a substantial and permanent character. Stalls will be erected for the horses of each of the members, so that on arriving at the Park, each can be assured his animal will be safe from harm, until he be ready to return. Ample accommodations will also be made for the horses and vehicles of visitors. The entrance for gentlemen accompanied by ladies, or with their families, is at the upper end of the Park, the gates of which open immediately into a fine grove, in which a stand will be erected, from which a fine view can be obtained of the track, without subjecting ladies to the annoyance of mingling with the promiscuous crowd that will congregate at the spectator's stand. The first race over the Cincinnati Trotting Park will take place on Thursday next-twomile heats to skeleton wagons-for a purse of four hundred dollars. There are four entries. Among the horses now in training at the Park are "Wagener," "Mohawk," "Daniel Webster, jr.," "Blue Dick," "Snow Storm," a Broadway Hotel, was entered by a thief on pair of gray "Messengers," "Lady Wilson." "Moll Brook," "Buckeye," "Paul Pry," "Woeful," "Wisconsin Chief," "O. W. Dimmick," "Ticonderoga," "John Biggs," "Lady Poker," "Nicholas," "Kate Redfield," "George Waters," "Lady Buxton," "Grey Tom," and "Bill Farran." Most of these are "old uns," but some have never given a race, although much is expected of their performances. The gallant "Stockbridge Chief" will be at the track this week to go in training for the approaching fair at St. Louis.

Robbery .- About eleven o'clock yesterday the residence of Mr. C. York, on the southeast corner of Seventh and John-streets, was entered, while the family were attending church, and robbed of one gold guard-chain; one silver watch, marked T. G. Y.; one ladies' breastpin containing a likeness; one silver tesspoon, marked J. E. J.; and one diamond, and one gold breastpin. About the same time the residence of Officer Ackley, on Ninth-street, between John and Mound, was entered through a window, while the family were absent, but nothing carried off. Mr. A. Informs us that when he arrived at home everything was in disorder-beds tumble! up, drawers open, . rniture misplaced, &c. Thieves are certainly getting very bold.

MECHANICS' INSTITUTE FAIR .- At a meeting of the Mechanics' Fair Committee, held at Mechanics' Institute last Saturday evening, it was determined to do away with medals and diplomas, and substitute therefor a handsomely bound illustrated catalogue, containing a business notice of each person or firm entitled to premiums. The committee are confident that this new idea will meet with general approval. Messrs. B. C. A man named Robert Klug, was found in fence corner, in Delhi Township, last Friday morning, in a dying condition, with a deep cut n his head, and several bruises on his body. He was conveyed to a house close by, and, on Saturday morning, expired. Fears are entertained that Klug had been foully dealt with. He was a laborer, and for several months past has been very dissipated.

An elderly lady named Margaret Birely, who resides on Poplar-street, attempted to commit suicide last Saturday by swallowing a large dose of morphine. An antidote was administered in time to save her life. She assigns, as a reason for attempting to take her own life, that she has for some months past suffered excessively with neuralgia, and that she preferred death to such torture.

About ten oclock last Satu rday evening colored man named Job Bart, while laboring under a fit of intoxication, leaped from the hurricane deck of a steamer lying at the landing into the river. Job was rescued from his perilous situation by a party of gentlemen who went out after him in a yawl. He was pretty well sobered when he reached the shore.

The largest market ever held in Court-street was that of last Saturday morning. The string of wagons commenced near the center of the square between Sycamore and Main; thence west to Main, north to Court, west to Western-row, south to Eighth, and east to Plum-streets.

COVINGTON NEWS.

WHEAT TRADE IN OUR CITY .- According to some data we have been enabled to procure within the past week, we are inclined to believe that Covington is really acquiring some considerable importance as a wheat mart, and that the best grain in the United States is raised in Kentucky, and finds a market here. It is within our remembrance, before the Covington and Lexington Railroad went into operation, when the whole wheat trade in our city was embraced in the small amount brought here in wagons, and at that time the entire business was done by one or two houses. The opening of the above Railroad created a new era in our wheat trade, Previous to that period the farmers in the counties immediately surrounding us turned their attention to the cultivation of tobacco and hemp, which was then easiest brought in market, but since they are forded a better medium to get their products to market, they have turned their attention to the growing of wheat as a much more profitable article. As we are now situated, the crops of wheat of the Counties of Jessamine, Ciark, Pendleton, Harrison, Bourbon, Grant, Boone and Madison, find their equalities of surface have been levelled and way to our city, chiefly by railroad, and always finds ready sale at the highest prices. The white wheat graded so that the entire track can be seen raised in those counties appear to be in greater defrom any stand-point. On the grounds are mand in the eastern markets than any other grown an abundance of never-failing springs, and in the United States. In the New York market, at the latest dates, the quotations were, for white commodious stables have been erected for Michigan wheat $1 62 per bushel, and for Kentucky the accommodation of horses in training, or white $1 45, the preference being 43 cents in favor of which are there for the purposes of trotting the latter. At the present time the dealers in Covngton are Messrs. John Todd, S. Reynolds & Son, S. C. Rion & Son, John Mackey, R. W. Cooper, Howe & Sailman, Lewis Hord & Co., H. E. Borwell, Reynolds & Lair, J. C. Thomas, John B. Casey and A. Prague, each of whom have excellent warehouses, and who are constantly buying and selling. We expect that the Covington wheat mart has acctually become one of the most important in the West.

ACCUSED OF STRALING ONE HUNDRED DOL-LARS.-A day or two ago, a boarder in a house on the corner of Russell and Sixth-streets, missed a sum of money amounting to one hundred dollars, in round figures, and suspicion alighted upon a fellow-boarder by the name of Stubbs. At the loser's suggestion Stubbs was arrested and taken before the Mayor'. Court, on Saturday morning last, for examination opinion that a case was not made out against the de-

SUIT NOT COMMENCED .- One of the Cincinnati papers stated a short time ago that a suit had been brought for Davidson's heirs vs. Southgate's heirs, to recover one hundred and forty acres of land in the city of Covington. It appears the suit has not yet been commenced, but that Messrs. Wall & Car-lisle are about to sue for the land. The grounds for he suit are, that many years ago Davidson made mortgage to R. Southgate, conveying the land in question, and that Southgate took possession, but never foreclosed his mortgage. It is now proposed that the parties bring the money into Court, pay off the mortgage and take the land; but how the suit will terminate, is difficult to say.

SUPPOSED TO HAVE BEEN MAD .- The dwellers upon Madison-street were, on Saturday morning, startled by theory of "mad dog," and, upon rushing their doors, saw one, supposed to be rabid, running down the street. He snapped at every thing he passed, but we understand that no one was bitten. He was killed on the corner of Madison and Fourth-

WOULD WHIP HIS WIFE .- The Police arested a man, on Saturday morning, named Daniel Holey, accused of severely beating his wife-a heinous crime in Covington. He was examined before the Mayer, and, the proof being sufficient, he was fined seventeen dollars. He was also held to bail in the sum of fifty dollars, to keep the peace for one year.

NEWPORT NEWS.

St. STEPHENS' CHURCH . FAIR .- This fair, which for the past week has attracted such a large attendance at Odd Fellows' Hall, closed on Saturday evening last. The ladies who have had control of the fair design are making arrangements for a concert, which will probably take place on the 31st.

Is Missing .- For several days past we have missed the familiar countenance of Captain John Mesd, of the Newport ferry-boats. Upon inquiry, we were informed that he disappeared in the sarly part of last week, on a tour in Ohio. We hope he will not so far forget his dignity-for be it known he is one of the City Fathers-as to comingle with the Oberlinites nor Berlinites. TRIAL TO-DAY .- Doc. Apri-otherwis as William Andrews-will be tried to-day for painting the face of the keeper of the confectionery store, corner of Isabella and Bellevue-streets, last week, in a manner not at all consistent with the ideas that govern artistic painting. He will no doubt be his bly entertained by Mayor Hawkins, and will receive the attention due him for his brilliancy of execution. INDIANAPOLIS NEWS.

INDIANAPOLIS, August 20, 1859. THE LECTURE.-Miss Watkins, a colored lady, who lectured last night on the "Lights and Shadows of American Institutions," was so well received, that, according to request, she will repeat it to-night (Saturday.) The Sentinel says "she is a highly-polished and intellectual lady."

THE INJURED .- We are right glad to note the speady recovery of Mr. Babb, who was so severely hurt at the hubb and last factory a short time since. Thanks to medical skill and careful nursing, there is a possibility that he may yet have the partial use of his arm. Mr. Gipheart, who had his leg broken while making an excavation, by the earth falling in upon him, is rapidly improving. Mrs. Pitts died last Saturday from injuries received in falling from a fruit-tree, as noted by us at the time of the occurrence.

ACCIDEST .- William Smith, of the firm of Rexford & Smith, tinners, while sawing some strips at the planing-mill of Bykit & Beams, Thursday last, sawed off one or two of his fingers and injured his hand considerably.

Mannied .- On Wednesday, August 17, by the Rev. Mr. Whitten, Mr. John Sawyer to Mrs. Rhoda Morris, all of Indiana. Experience and inexperience, joined in heart and hand. May they ever wave, say we. THEATRICAL.-The March Troupe holds forth at the Metropolitan Monday night.

MONETARY.

SATURDAY EVENING, Aug. 20-3 P. M. During the week Carrency has remained very close, and the business of Third-street has been unusually quiet. A great deal of short-date Paper is offered, but the scarcity of Currency prevents the Discounthouses from accommodating any parties, other than their regular depositors, at the rate, say 10@12 per roll around as usual. The circumstances connected with it have not yet matured—but will in a short
